

Do you work hand in hand with the school police?

Yes, we work well with each other and have a great relationship. They know the students better but we handle investigations more routinely than they do. We have skills and accesses that they routinely do not have access to. Together we make a formidable team.